Rebecca (JueYezi) is a breastfeeding educator and the Cultural Program Coordinator for the Asian Community and Cultural Center. She was born in China.

As a mother, Rebecca understands how important breastfeeding is to a baby's health. She enjoys helping mothers learn about breastfeeding and speaks Mandarin and English. Please feel free to contact Rebecca if you are a new mother and would like breastfeeding support. There is no fee for her help.

Email Rebecca at jueyezir@yahoo.com or text 402-610-5410.

Lincoln's Community Breastfeeding Educators are sponsored by MilkWorks and Partnership for a Healthy Lincoln. For additional information, please contact ann@milkworks.org or visit www.milkworks.org.
